E - 38,041

AUG 1 2 1969

CIA Employs Experts In Variety of Fields

By BOYD STEVENS

Win a 20 volume set of Encyclopedia International if you're under twenty. Ask a question of an outstanding personality that will be of interest to ALL "Under Twenties." Write QUES-TION-AIRS c/o The Everett Herald.

Dear Question-Air:

in becoming a member of the courses or general areas of con-Central Intelligence Agency centration to students considering an eventual career with school. Would you please ask Mr. Richard Helms, director of shown that persons of widely discovered the second statement of the second for the CIA. I'm interested in not to mention many "generalthe profession because I would ists." be serving my country, which is very important to me. I would is, of course, essential for someyou could give me. Thank you.

Sincerely yours, Debbic Mills

(This-week's award of a 20 vol-consideration. ume set of Encyclopedia Inter-swer from Mr. Joseph C. Goodwin, Assistant to the Director, Central Intelligence Agency, Washington, D. C. 20505). Dear Miss Mills:

Your recent letter, the interest it expresses in this Agency and your desire to scrve your country are most gratifying to us here. Thank you for writing.

As a matter of practice, the Central Intelligence Agency I am very seriously interested does not recommend specific the CIA, what type of education vergent backgrounds have had or background is necessary, also successful intelligence careers, what the requirements are and Further, the agency employed if there is an age limit to work specialists in almost all fields,

An interest in foreign affairs greatly appreciate any advice one who seeks a career in a foreign intelligence agency and a knowledge of or aptitude for forcign language is an important

Ecnlosed you will find a national is being sent to Debbie pamphlet outlining the history Mills as well as the original and functions of this Agency, a brochure describing career opportunities and an article from American Education magazine: We hope this material will be of assistance to you.

. Sincerely,

Joseph C. Goodwin Assistant to the Director Central Intelligence Agency Washington, D.C. 20505